personalized path to your educational future

Our team combines innovative technology, data and committed educators to provide academic enrichment and proven effective test preparation for our students

OUR LEADERS

Modi B.

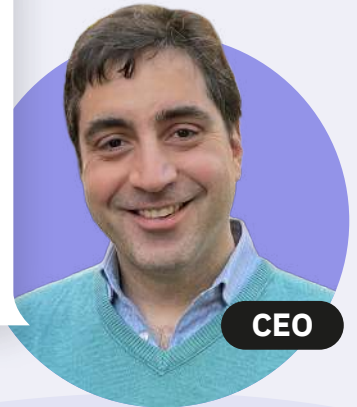

DUKE UNIVERSITY

Bachelor's in Engineering & Economics
MBA

After college, Modi returned to Panama to mentor Latin American college hopefuls. As the founder of Zinkerz Inc., he's built a thriving educational platform dedicated to accessible, high-quality, personalized learning.

"Zinkerz is really about introspection. The most important thing is getting the best out of each student by making them realize that they are great the way they are. Results are important, but the best result is finding the right path for each student."

CEO

CIO

"I love working with students from around the world and finding ways to offer each student an individualized learning experience. I enjoy seeing where the students go with the skills they have learned from their time with us."

Karly B.

BOSTON COLLEGE

Bachelor's in Business & Communications
Master's in Mathematics & Secondary Education

Karly has been an influential educator at Newton North High School, enhancing curricula and mentoring upcoming teachers. Now the CIO at Zinkerz, Karly remains a key figure on pioneering educational methodologies and promoting student success.

"Our philosophy centers around a commitment to bettering ourselves everyday. This mindset leads to results - not only do we help students, but we also teach students how to help themselves reach their maximum potential."

COO

Carlos H.

GEORGE WASHINGTON U.

Bachelor's in Systems Engineering

Carlos co-founded Zinkerz as its COO, believing in the transformative power of technology in education. Under his leadership, Zinkerz is a beacon of innovation in online test prep and global student mentorship.

OUR BOSTON TEAM

TEACHING SINCE
2019

ROLE AT ZINKERZ

My focus is on managing and supporting our team of online educators, as well as our in-house staff, through facilitating trainings, providing resources, and maintaining communications.

I am also in charge of overseeing our Verbal courses and content production. And my favorite part of my role is teaching and interacting with our students and seeing them grow!

Kaitlin M.

Manager of College Counseling

"My favorite thing about helping students brainstorm their personal statements for college is the freedom; it's one of the first essays they can write where they can truly use their own personal voice."

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

Bachelor's in English
Master's in English

ROLE AT ZINKERZ

I help guide students through the college preparation and application process. I meet them where they're at, whether they are just starting high school, applying as a senior, or even considering graduate school.

From filling out application forms to brainstorming and perfecting college essays, my role involves me getting to know students on a personal level to make sure we meet deadlines and that their application showcases who they truly are.

FISHER COLLEGE

Bachelor's in Management
Master's in Instructional Design

TEACHING SINCE

2018

ROLE AT ZINKERZ

I primarily help our Verbal content team design, develop, and update curriculum for a variety of our Verbal Courses, particularly our English Fundamentals and English Proficiency classes. I also specialize in teaching many of our younger students in our English courses that are designed to supplement and reinforce the concepts that are already learning in their day-to-day schooling in order to help them be prepared for their future studies!

OUR BOSTON TEAM

Victoria H.

College Counseling Coordinator

“Getting to know our students – especially details that they might consider unimportant – helps us to highlight their personalities more authentically within their college applications.”

LESLEY UNIVERSITY

Bachelor's in English

ROLE AT ZINKERZ

I stay in contact with students amidst their college application journey. From answering questions to informing their next steps — when students need guidance regarding resumes, essays, and more, I'm there to help them stay on track.

I am also part of the team conducting student aptitudes assessments to aid our students in uncovering their test-taking strengths and potential career goals. Navigating the route toward one's academic future can be intimidating, but college counseling is here to help!

A GLIMPSE AT SOME OF OUR EDUCATORS

The team is carefully selected based on their teaching experience and ability to relate to students. Each of them is trained to understand that learning is not a "one-size-fits-all" endeavor, which allows them to adapt their lessons to the individual needs of the student.
